Day 1:

In Keynote Address Dr.A.Pandi deals with the aspects such as Linear Algebra, Real Analysis which plays a vital role in CSIR NET & SET examinations. It was easily understandable by the students who are approaching for the examinations. He discussed the previous year question papers to clear the doubts which they have faced in the CSIR NET. He also gave the previous year question papers to the participants and makes them to work out individually.

He also gave some tips for the preparation of the examination as to divide your time carefully to cover each topic in depth, solve the CSIR NET Question papers from the previous year using them as guide, look for the CSIR NET Mock Test. This method allows you to sharpen your speed and become sufficiently familiar with the format of questions.

Revise each topic thoroughly so that this will help you to increase self-assurance and make you more knowledgeable about the subject.

Day 2:

The Next day session starts by clarifying and simplifying the doubts from the work sheet which has been given by the Resource person. The participants were also eagerly shared their answers among themselves through chalk and talk. Further he started with the topic Complex Analysis and Differential Equations. After the completion of the presentation he answered all the doubts and questions raised by the participants.

All the participants keenly attended the workshop and proposed to organize such useful workshop in future. Around 70 participants (PG Students & Faculty members) got benefited through this workshop.

Ms.M.Akshayaa I M.Sc., Mathematics proposed the Vote of Thanks. The programmed was concluded with the National Anthem.
